FOUR YEARS AGO AND NOW

The nation is at work. The nation is at peace. The nation is accomplishing the destiny of Democracy. Four years ago the nation was not at work. With resources boundless, with a hundred million people eager to achieve and do, commerce languished, industries halted, men were idle. The country struggled in the toils of an inadequate financial system. Credit was at the mercy of piracy. The small business man was bound hand and foot. Panic hung like a storm cloud over the business world.

Now, bustling granaries, teeming factories, crowded railways, and overlaid ships distribute wealth and comfort to the uncounted millions. The world is at work. The nation is at peace. The nation is accomplishing the destiny of Democracy. Four years ago the nation was not at work. With resources boundless, with a hundred million people eager to achieve and do, commerce languished, industries halted, men were idle. The country struggled in the toils of an inadequate financial system. Credit was at the mercy of piracy. The small business man was bound hand and foot. Panic hung like a storm cloud over the business world.

Minority Leader Mann's panegyric on the Grand Old Party, delivered in the House in August, 1912, and still distributed as the bible of the Republican creed, in which he refers to the "hell" which wage earners would have to endure in the event of the Democratic administration—makes interesting reading in connection with a $200,000,000 wage increase during one year of Democracy in the White House and both branches of Congress. Mr. Mann will have to write out a new testament of recantation.

The silence of the Republican national platform on the great constructive measures of the Wilson administration—Federal Reserve Act, Federal Trade Commission, Agricultural Extension, Federal Land Bank, Federal Shipping Board, Income Tax, and the rest—is followed up by the Ohio Republicans, who did not even oppose the administration tariff, or the Mexican and preparedness record. Silence is a great asset.

By the story of a man I can tell you what the spirit of America is. It is the story of a man named Hoover, a boy from California, a mining engineer, who has worked in all parts of the world and who is now chairman of the Belgian relief fund. Herbert Hoover represents the spirit of America. He has fed the people of a nation, and has put in working order that poor country.

A modest man is he, and one day when I said to him: "Tell me it is so that we are not held in the highest respect abroad?" he answered, "Oh never believe it. Tell any one who says that to go to Brussels and stand in front of the American legation, where the Stars and Stripes wave from sunrise to sunset. They will see a procession of Belgian artisans and peasants, and as each passes he takes off his hat and bows to the Stars and Stripes." This is the spirit of America, the spirit that desires to help the world, and let us for a moment stand by the poor peasant of Belgium, give tribute to that flag and take heart as to our country—From Secretary Lane's address before the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at Philadelphia.

He was a perfect wonder, was the parliamentary candidate for a certain agricultural district. And he was never shy of telling the voters why they should return him as their M. P.

"I am a practical farmer," said he boastfully, at one meeting. "I can plow, reap, milk cows, work a chaff cutter, shoe a horse—in fact," he went on proudly, "I should like you to tell me one thing about a farm which I cannot do."

Then in the impressive silence, a small voice asked from the back of the crowd, "Can you lay an egg?"—London Answers.
